

Joseph Grace

Managing Principal Atlanta

Professional Experience

Joe has been with Cresa for over 20 years and exclusively focuses on occupier representation. Some of Joe's achievements include being elected to serve on Atlanta's Executive Committee, Cresa's Strategic Leadership Committee, a recipient of costar's individual power broker award, and consistently one of Cresa's top producing office brokers. Joe specializes in portfolio management, site selection, and developing strategic real estate strategies, as well as negotiating leases, subleases, relocations, and space consolidations. He lives in Decatur with his wife Kate, daughters Avery & Ellis and son Jude along with two hound dogs. In his spare time, he enjoys fishing, live music (its good for the soul) and golf.
