

Adam Subber

Managing Principal Boston

Professional Experience

As Managing Principal of Cresa, Adam co-manages the Boston office, guiding its strategic direction, ensuring overall client satisfaction, and directing its operations. Adam's advisory practice focuses on corporate and institutional client support throughout Greater Boston. Since joining Cresa in 2002, Adam has assisted clients representing numerous industries with space acquisitions, dispositions, lease buyouts and build-to-suit projects.

Education

Adam graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in 1996 with a Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy.

Affiliations

Adam has been an active member of various industry, service, and non-profit organizations. From 2016 – 2021, he served on the Board of Directors of Cresa Global. From 2010 through 2018, he served on the Boston Commercial Brokers Association (CBA) board, and as president in 2015. He is a member of CoreNet Global and YPO New England, acting as the Chapter Chair for YPO for 2024/25. He serves on the Board of Advisors to Newton Wellesley Hospital and is on the Board of Trustees of St. Benedict Classical Academy in Natick.

He has served on the host committee for United Way's annual Real Estate & Building Industry Leadership Breakfast, is a Boston Business Journal 40-Under-40 Honoree (2014) and received the CBA Greater Cambridge Deal of the Year in 2016 (Akamai Technologies HQ), and the CBA 2017 Boston Office Deal of the Year (PTC HQ). In 2025, he received the William Goade First Citizen Award, Cresa's highest internal honor.

Personal Interests

Aside from work with clients, Adam enjoys doing nearly anything outside, preferably with his wife and four children.
