

Brad Struck, SIOR

Executive Managing Principal Dallas

Professional Experience

Brad Struck is an Executive Managing Principal at Cresa and directly involved with the firm's vision, growth and strategy. With over a decade of experience in representing office and industrial occupiers across North America in executing complex site selection, Brad develops data-driven strategies centered around clients' business, financial and operational goals. His expertise includes transaction advisory, site selection, industrial sales, build-to-suits, sale leasebacks and portfolio management. In addition to serving clients, Brad leads and brings together Cresa's Dallas team of advisors.

Clients

- Pickler Universe
- Incora
- Paragon Healthcare
- Neiman Marcus
- ITS Logistics
- Brooks Running
- 7-Eleven
- Ryder
- Olam

Affiliations

Brad serves on the Board of Trustees for Legacy Christian Academy, and formerly served on the executive leadership team for the American Heart Association's Cotes du Coeur Gala. He supports numerous charitable organizations, including National Breast Cancer Foundation, Austin Street Shelter and Frisco Family Services. He is a member of the SIOR - Society of Industrial and Office Realtors, RILA - Retail Industry Leaders Association and The Council of Supply Chain Management, where he was a former president for the DFW Roundtable. Brad has been recognized as an annual Power Broker, NAIOP Industrial Broker of the Year and a two-time finalist as the D CEO Broker of the Year recognizing outstanding industry players across all real estate segments.

Education

Brad received his M.B.A. from the University of Dallas and holds a bachelor's in Business Administration from Texas A&M University.

Contact

214.914.1769 direct
bstruck@cresa.com

Expertise

- Transaction Management
- Industrial
- Transportation & Logistics
- Consulting
- Site Selection & Incentives
- Global Portfolio Solutions