

Peter E. Sabesan

Managing Principal New York

Professional Experience

Peter Sabesan is a leader in the field of commercial real estate. In a career spanning more than four decades, he has advised many of the country's top occupiers, serving as an exclusive representative for a majority of those occupiers in completing new leases, restructuring leases and lease renewals.

Over the years, he has worked with financial services, banks, hedge funds, technology companies, fashion firms, and advertising agencies. Regardless of whom he represents, Peter's mission is to advise his clients in making the best decision for their commercial real estate needs.

Starting at Helmsley Spear, where he became an officer of the company, he specialized in office leasing and oversaw brokers and salespeople in Lower Manhattan. In 1997, he co-founded the Hunter Realty Organization which developed into one of the premier boutique full service commercial real estate companies in New York City. In 2010 Hunter purchased the New York City franchise of Coldwell Banker Commercial, which became one of the top franchises in the country.
